The Only Democratic Paper in the County

Christmas Greetings

TO OUR
Democrat-Sentinel Readers
FROM LOGAN'S
Business and Professional Men.

"A Merry Christmas to all."
Dr. C. O. Allen.

Greetings.—Mr. Chas. Rose and his Clerks wish to extend to all their friends and patrons a Merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year. May our relations be as cordial as ever. Our wishes for 1907 is to serve you better than ever before.

Most Respy.
Chas. Rose,
Chas. Lappen,
Frank Judy,
Harry E. Rose.

"For the myriad courtesies and expressions of kindness from old and young, I send this echo throughout the county."—T. B. White, Pastor M. E. Church.

"Another year of progress and prosperity is about to close. To one and all a Merry Christmas."—Comly & Son.

We wish our readers a joyous Holiday season, also thanking you all for your interest taken in this paper; we assure you that the coming year we will put every effort to make this Hocking County's best paper.—Democrat-Sentinel.

"Thanking you for your liberal patronage, we wish one and all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."—S. C. Hudson.

"My first Christmas in Logan to live here and I am indeed enjoying it."—D. M. Soliday, Clerk of Court.

"I never had a happier holiday season; and I am very grateful for the endorsement given me at the late election by old friends in Hocking. I wish every one the best Christmas they ever enjoyed. I am going to be at home to eat goose with my own family."—Judge O. W. H. Wright

"Have had a good business and wish all our patrons and friends a Merry Christmas."—Dollison Bros.

"I hope there won't be a drunk in town for a week. Merry Christmas to all the fellows that have it in for me."—Marshal Allen.

"These sloppy nights make a fellow hope for a little merrier Christmas night."—Night Men Krishbaum and Bishop.

With a sincere desire to see my friends happy this Christmas time, I remain, F. A. Nail.

"I wish all of my friends in old Hocking one of the most enjoyable Christmas seasons they ever had. I will be at home with my family to enjoy a big Christmas dinner."—John C. Pettit, Representative.

"The Christmas season brings the richest blessings of the year. It reminds us of the joys and friendship of youth. With us and the dealings with you in the year closing, it has been a pleasant one. We assure you that in the new year to come we will maintain those pleasant relations. To one and all in Logan and Hocking county we wish a Merry Christmas."—Bay & Bray.

"Our lines have fallen in pleasant places the past year and we are indeed grateful."—J. T. Sander-son.

"Another Christmas day is near. For Christmas comes but once a year.

"Now, dang it all, I have forgotten the next two lines of my verse, but I believe it something like this:

"Now laugh and talk and pass your jokes; But don't forget the little folks.

"It may seem strange to the people that a doctor would wish everybody to enjoy good health, but I do sincerely wish every body a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I hope we will all be blessed with good health and prosperity for another year."—G. W. Dollison, M. D.

Greetings—"To all our patrons and friends in Logan and Hocking county we extend a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous and Happy New Year."—Edgar Pleukharp.

"A grateful people again rejoice and are glad in the sentiment of the old and even the new song 'Peace on Earth and Good Will to Men.' To my Logan and Hocking county friends, and especially to those who gave me their support in the late election, I most heartily wish you a Merry Christmas and a prosperous and Happy New Year."—J. W. Gabriel, Treasurer Elect.

"In presenting Christmas Greetings we wish to thank our patrons for the most prosperous year in the history of our business as we feel that your co-operation has done much to make it so."—Kessler Bros.

We would like to have had all Logan's business and professional men to have sent greeting to their friends through these columns, but many did not respond and many we could not get by phone. We thank all for courtesies shown us the past year.—Editor.

"Will say that the past year was very pleasant and prosperous with the exception of the kickers; the one want roads the other not; the next a bridge and the old lady a culvert. Which ever you grant there is a kick. The next the taxes on the sheep; they kick from near and far; the tax is high, the sheep is low.—(Fault of the Commissioners) Look for your trustee and your school board and you can solve the problem of the taxes so you see my kick is past, I wish you a Merry Christmas and a happy new year; after we meet a year from hence, I hope to meet you on the other side of the kickers fence. Commissioners meet the first Monday in March on sheep; taxes the first Monday in June; the regular meetings the second and fourth Saturday in each month."—F. Weymueller, Commissioner.

"Busiest man in town. Everybody patronizes me at tax paying time. Too bad to take their Christmas money from them."—Treasurer Harbaugh.

"Good health and a pleasant year has been my lot, and I am very grateful. Wish all a Merry Xmas."—Auditor Martin.

"Though just starting in this business, we are doing well. Encouragement for the future and a prosperous New Year to all."—Charles J. Wright, Feed Store.

"A little more surrensification and all will be merry."—J. M. Floyd.

"In a rush time with a machine broke down, I am trying to be pleasant and make others happy."—C. R. Montgomery.

"I have the honor of having everybody in the community as my patrons, and wish them all a Merry Xmas."—Postmaster McKay

"Greetings! Yes. We have had good entertainments and good houses, and wish everybody a Merry Christmas."—F. A. Koppe, Manager Opera House.

Notice to P. O. Box patrons.

The postoffice departments has put into effect a uniform box rent schedule based on the receipts of the office. When the gross receipts are above $10,000 and less than $40,000 the following prices are fixed: Call boxes, 35 cents; small lock boxes 60 cents; medium lock boxes 75 cents; large lock boxes $1.00. These prices apply to the Logan office for receipts were above $10,000.

The law has been changed in regard to rental of boxes. A bill will be put in box ten days before end of quarter and rent must be paid before beginning of new quarter if you desire to keep box. Therefore rent should be paid before January 1st, 1907.

Memorial to Wm. Westenhaver.

At the age of 77 years 3 months and 23 days Mr. William Orr Westenhaver very quietly and peacefully passed to his reward on the morning of Dec. 11, 1906. He was born one half mile east of Logan Aug. 16, 1829, and always lived within sight of the place of his birth. On Nov. 19, 1863 he was married to Lydia Moore. In the house in which they at once went to housekeeping they have ever lived a most happy, prosperous and contented life. I never looked upon him as an old man for his heart was always young and his smile as the morning sun. He did not save his pleasant words and genial manners for special occasions; his own family and near friends knew him at his best.

Honest and honorable in the world, cordial to every body, genial in the home.

He fully exemplified the Spirit of Him who brought peace on earth and good will to men. He had no feelings of enmity, no one had aught against him.

He helped the world to believe in the reality the christian religions, because no one can live as he lived without Divine aid. For more than thirty years he had been a professing christian and enjoyed that grace that gave him strength in life and peace in death.

A life which speaks for itself needs not the comment of tongue or pen. The sunset tints of sky are not improved by attempted description. The rainbow furnishes its own poem and sings its own song.

Brother Westenhaver was one of the most enjoyable men I ever met. The glow of kindly greeting was ever on his face and the warmth of friendship in the clasp of his hand. We shall miss him, for we all loved him.

"Servant of God, well done! Thy glorious warfare's past; The battle's fought, the race is won, And thou art crowned at last."
